

PRESS RELEASE

Department of Human Services - St. Thomas and St. Croix Medicaid Eligibility Units Temporarily Closed for a Workforce Development Event

For Immediate Release: October 10, 2022

U.S. VIRGIN ISLANDS – The Virgin Islands Department of Human Services (VIDHS) today announced that their Medicaid Eligibility units on St. Thomas and St. Croix will be closed for a Workforce Development event to provide training for their staff.

The St. Thomas Eligibility Unit at the Knud Hansen Complex will be closed all day on Tuesday October 11 and Wednesday October 12, 2022.

The St. Croix Eligibility Unit at the Mars Hill Location will be closed all day on Thursday October 13 and Friday October 14, 2022.

The VI Department of Human Services apologizes for any inconvenience. Normal business hours for the Eligibility Unit at each location will resume once the event is completed. Applicants can still visit each office and submit their applications in the drop boxes, or email to sttjmap@dhs.vi.gov (St. Thomas), stxmap@dhs.vi.gov (St. Croix).
