VIDHS MASS CARE TO CONDUCT COMMODITIES POD TRAINING ON ST. THOMAS AND ST. CROIX THURSDAY

U.S. VIRGIN ISLANDS - The Virgin Islands Department of Human Services (VIDHS) is advising the public of an active Points of Distribution (POD) Training Exercise and Drill that will take place on Thursday, May 25, 2023, on St. Thomas and St. Croix at 9:00AM

These FEMA-led exercises and drills will take place on St. Croix at the St. Croix Central High School campus, and on St. Thomas at the Crown Bay Marina. Residents and the motoring Public are being asked to proceed with caution around the aforementioned areas as these activities take place.

This post- hurricane landfall scenario will be conducted through a collective partnership between VIDHS, the Virgin Islands Territorial Emergency Management Agency (VITEMA), the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), and Virgin Islands National Guard (VING). The drill will include support from the Virgin Islands Police Department (VIPD) and The Virgin Islands Fire Service and EMS (FEMS) the American Red Cross, Emergency Support Government agencies and volunteers.

During the Trainings, Interagency staff and personnel will be briefed on the standard operation procedures for the distribution of Emergency Supplies, to include the acquisition and delivery of life sustaining resources, hygiene items, and clean-up items to meet the urgent needs of disaster survivors.

The Virgin Island Department of Human Services is mandated to carry out Emergency Support Function (ESF) #6, under FEMA and VITEMA's Coordinated Disaster Response. ESF #6 refers to Mass Care, Emergency Assistance, Shelters, and Human Services. It requires the agency to supervise the coordination and delivery of mass care, emergency assistance, sheltering, and human services during a disaster.
